3. Further he spoke about the importance of the Key indicators , Criterion wise metrics. Structural modification in syllabus ,How often we modify the syllabus and highlighting the quality. Disclosing these things in the website.
4. He has stressed about the visibility of activities.
5. How to apply projects to different agencies, and other important aspects of all Criterion measures.

The meeting came to an end with the vote of thanks by the Registrar Dr. I. Lilly Pushpam.

DIRECTOR IQAC

VICE- CHANCELLOR

PROF. N. RAJENDRAN ASSUMES OFFICE AS THE 10TH VICE-CHANCELLOR OF ALAGAPPA UNIVERSITY

Prof. N. Rajendran assumed office as the 10th Vice-Chancellor of Alagappa University, Karaikudi, on 05.06.2018. He occupies this highest position with his rich academic achievement and administrative acumen gained during the three decades of service in varied key positions at Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli.

Besides being the Founder Professor of the Department of History and the Founder Director of the Bharathidasan School of Management (BSM 2016-2017), Founder Director of the Center for Social Exclusion and Inclusive Studies (2007-2008), Prof. Rajendran was the Dean of the Faculty of Arts and School of Social Sciences from 2008 to 2015. He also served as the Director of Centre for Distance Education (2014-2015) and the Co-ordinator of RUSA Scheme from 2014 to 2016.

During his acclaimed academic career, Prof. Rajendran, received many accolades and awards. He was honoured with the prestigious membership of the Indian Council of Historical Research, Ministry of Human Resources Development, Government of India (2008-2015). He also served as a member on various UGC Review Committees. He has done commendable work as the General Secretary of the Tamil Nadu History Congress for 10 years from 2007 to 2017. He was also the General Secretary of the South Indian History Congress from 2015 to 2017.

Oxford University Press has published his book titled National Movement in Tamil Nadu : Agitational Politics and State Coercion 1905 – 1914, in which he has challenged the very thesis and ideas of the Cambridge Historians C.J. Baker and D.A. Washbrook for which he got the “Citation of Meritorious Achievement” from the Cambridge University. His book Tamil Natil Desiyam and Swadesiyam received the best Tamil Book Award and he was honoured with the title “Sindanai Peroli”. His total publications include 12 books.

Prof. Rajendran has delivered 170 expert lectures as resource person and has been an invited speaker for academic programmes, including UGC Refresher and Orientation Courses, Training Programmes and Endowment Lectures. He has presented 162 research papers in various national and international seminars, workshops, symposia and conferences.

He served as the coordinator of ICHR project titled Dictionary of Martyrs: India's Freedom Struggle (1857-1947), Southern Region. He also published 65 research articles in various national and international peer reviewed journals of reputation. His articles have appeared in The Hindu, The Indian Express and The Frontline. He successfully organized 10 UGC Refresher Courses and more than 65 national and international level conferences and seminars, sponsored by the UGC, the ICHR and the TANSCH during his long academic career.

New Vice-Chancellor's Address to the Press

After assuming office as the 10th Vice-Chancellor of Alagappa University on 05.06.2018, Prof. N.Rajendran addressed the Press on the same day. He expressed his happiness on becoming the Vice-Chancellor of renowned Alagappa University which has been accorded the highest status at the national level; and he added that he was fully aware of the responsibility entrusted to him by the government.

The Vice-Chancellor said that steps will be taken to name the entire University campus as “Vallal Alagappan Valagam”. He said that “to enhance the excellence-level of the University, quality in knowledge production, acquisition and dissemination of Knowledge are very essential”; and he exhorted the faculty to be always conscious of the fact that inquisitive mind and enquiring mind coupled with critical thinking and creative writing ought to be the parameters of imparting knowledge and that would help us to realize the new Vice-Chancellor's vision “Access, Quality and Excellence”. He added that for this the “shift now should be from studying to learning”. Quality research ought to be the anchor-sheet of good teaching. Committed devotion to teaching and research on the part of the faculty will automatically boost the image of the institution and lift it to loftier heights.

Prof. N. Rajendran, stated that the Central Library in the University should have an exclusive Transparent Reading Hall for the aspirants preparing for various competitive examinations; and in this context he cited the example of such a facility in existence at Connemara Library, Chennai. The transparency in the reading and preparation for different competitive examinations will inculcate a sense of learning in the students visiting the library and make them join the cluster of serious learners. This facility will soon be added to the Central Library of Alagappa University for the benefit of the students at large.
