Teaching practice is an essential part of the physical education curriculum. Therefore the Department of Physical education invited K.Mohammed Khaleefa a former student of the Department to share the “importance of teaching practice” especially the two different states as a student while studying the course and as a teacher in an institution after passing out. This session revealed the significance of teaching practice by his experience and he really set as an example for the current students. He talked about all the various parts of lesson like warming-up, main part, recreational part and the summarizing part. The session was live and interactive with the students and also the valid inputs provided by the HOD was additional information. The programme was ended up with a vote thanks by the class representative.
